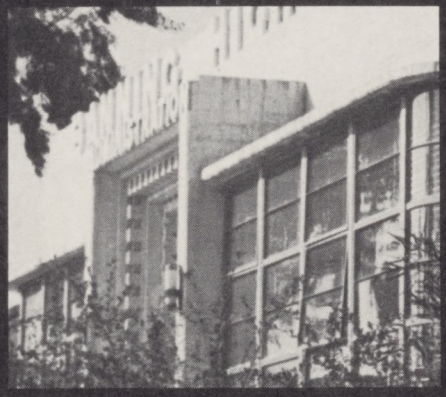
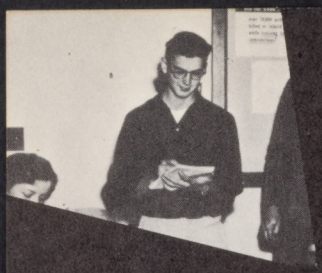
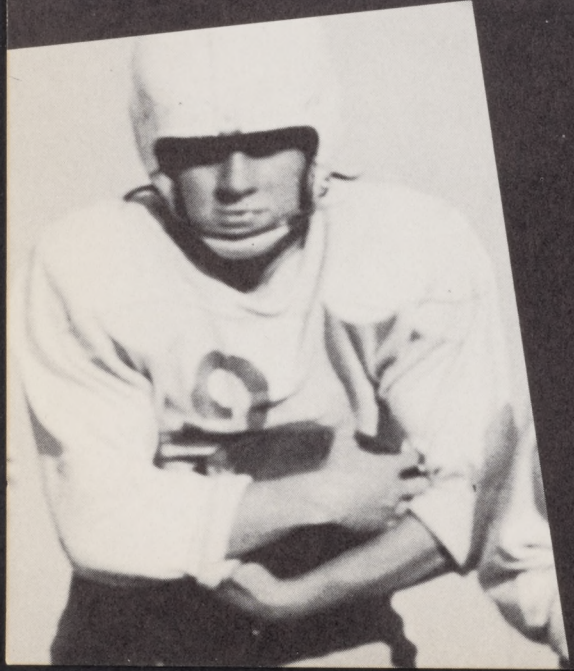
you

your school, your future

what's it to you? plenty! it's a job, success, a place to hang your hat. you've a job to do, a big one, and school is where you start.







you

the brain, muscle-man, personality kid—you're all kinds of people with one common denominator. you all want to secure the future in terms of the big I; but if you're the right kind of Joe, you'll want to see everyone get the same deal.

your school

besides being four years of fooling around, cramming for tests, and footing your girl's coke bills, it is your best bet for helping you to be on the ball when opportunity knocks in this world of rough situations.

administration

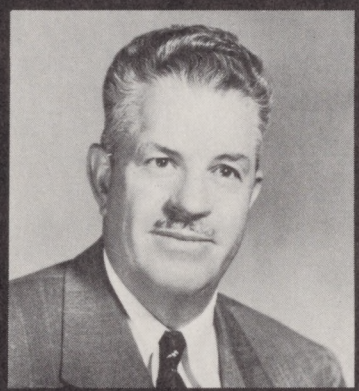
This, your 1953 Yearbook, is fittingly dedicated to You, Your School, Your Future. You are well aware of the fact that you are living in an age of atomic power, supersonic speed, television, and miracle drugs. It is a marvelous but overwhelming era, and young people who are on the threshold of adult life need to be thoroughly prepared for the challenging future.

We who have guided you through the past four years hope that your school has helped you to gain wisdom which will enable you to adjust readily and to be an efficient and productive factor in the infinite future.

Although scientific accomplishment is great, simple basic truths of life—such as the golden rule, will never be outmoded. So it is also hoped that you have gained much from school which will help you to live and work with other people in a most congenial way.

May your future be prosperous and happy!

Earle B. Powell



SUPERINTENDENT: Earle B. Powell

SCHOOL BOARD: Robert H. Blee, C. O. Barker, Mrs. Esther McClean, Tom Pierce, James Whigham

principal

Four years may seem like a long time, but it depends a lot on your point of view. When you look four years into the future it appears to be a long time; when you look back four years it often seems like only yesterday.

Hence the recordings of this book, captured in photo and print, take on meaning in keeping with your position in school. As a senior you will look to this book for fond memories of high school days. As an under-classman you may look upon this San Gorgonian as a record of events to expect, plan for, and enjoy. It is only natural that you look at things not as they are, but as you are.

In any event you will find recorded here the pleasant memories of your high school days. As time marches on, these memories will become more real and more meaningful. Youth is wonderful but you can't make it a career. Nevertheless, you can reminisce. Not even time can prevent the enjoyment of your high school memories. So in the days to come when you thumb these pages and become carried away by the good old days of '53, please remember that even then, the good old American way was "Hats off to the past; coats off to the future."

for you seniors, the future isn't a take it or leave it proposition anymore; it's
the day after tomorrow,
the day after graduation - you're on your own.
